Giant Darwin Tulips

The most useful Tulips for garden decoration and cutting are found in the Darwin class. The grace and beauty of the bright-colored flowers, carried on tall, straight stems, is unsurpassed by any other spring flowers. Groups of Darwins planted in borders, in front of or between shrubs, make a most beautiful effect. Many varieties can be forced in the greenhouse, some of them quite early. Either grown in pans, or as cut-flowers, they give great satisfaction.

	Doz.	100	1000
Afterglow. Deeply tinted orange-pink with salmon edges; the inner petals pure orange. Very fine for exhibition. Height, 28 inches	$0 55	$4 00

Smaller Size Darwin Tulip Bulbs

Every season our Tulip fields supply us with not only top-size bulbs, but with a great many bulbs of a smaller size, which, nevertheless, produce very good flowers. These bulbs can, naturally, be obtained at a lower price and they form excellent material for large one-colored panels and edgings in the garden. The following colors are supplied in varieties of our choice.

	100	1000	100	1000
Soft Red	$3 20	$31 00	Jet-Black	$3 30	$32 00

Pure Yellow	3 20	31 00	Dark Violet	3 20	31 00

Rainbow Mixture of Darwin Tulips

This mixture is well proportioned as to color, consisting of light, dark, and intervening shades, not too many hard colors or too many pale ones, but harmonizing, bright, striking, and fine. Besides the almost perfect beauty which this mixture exhibits in the garden, it gives a wealth of flowers for cutting. $3.10 per 100; $30 per 1000.

May-flowering Cottage Tulips

The Cottage Tulips, like the Darwins, bloom in May. Certain varieties, like some of the Darwins, will flower a few days earlier than others, but, on the whole, the earliest is just at its best when the latest flowering variety is beginning to show bloom. The delicate colors of the Cottage Tulips harmonize perfectly with the other late-flowering sorts. Their flowers are mostly long and pointed and are excellent for cutting. Many varieties are very fragrant.

Albino. A fine pure white variety with large, well-formed flower on strong stem. Good forcer. Height, 26 inches	Doz. $0 90	100 $6 35	1000
Argo. Golden yellow, mottled red, passing to a reddish brown as flower ages. Round flower on strong stem. Height, 26 inches	65	4 65
Avis Kennicott. Deeply tinted yellow on black base. Large, pointed flowers on erect, strong stem. Fine appearance. Height, 26 inches	60	4 25
Bouton d'Or. Pure golden yellow with black anthers. Round flower. Height, 24 inches	55	4 00
Capablanca. Dark pink with violet reflex. Extra-large flower. Height, 26 inches	1 00	7 25
Carrara. Pure white, large, cup-shaped flower of strong texture on strong stem. Excellent garden and forcing variety. Height, 26 inches	90	6 35
Columbus. Golden yellow with vermillion-red flames—very vivid. The pointed flower owes its beautiful appearance to its unique markings. Height, 22 inches	65	4 65

Excellent Mixture of beautifully shaped Cottage Tulips in a unique variation of colors

Breeder Tulips

The uncommon tints and the beautiful shape of the flowers, borne by huge stems, make these Tulips a class of particular beauty. The warm color variations of this race are unique and are not to be found in any other Tulip varieties. They flower approximately at the same time as the Darwin and Cottage Tulips and well deserve a place amongst these in every garden.

Mendel and Triumph Tulips

Mendel Tulips

By hybridizing the very early Duc van Thol Tulips with the beautifully colored Darwin Tulips, the cultivators obtained a fine race of long-stemmed Tulips. The varieties thus obtained were indeed a revelation, and they still attract the attention of growers who want newer discoveries. This class of Tulips is excellent for forcing.

Single Early Tulips

For brilliancy of bloom and ease of culture, few, if any, of the spring flowers rival the Single Early Tulips. They bloom in April and are furnished by Nature with a strong, robust build, to preserve them against wind and rain. The stems are shorter than the later Tulips, making them excellent subjects for formal beds and borders. They are excellent for very early and later forcing.

Paper-White Narcissus (for indoor growing only)

The large, pure white blooms are borne in clusters and are highly prized for their beauty, fragrance, and the ease with which they can be grown. This accounts for their universal popularity. 50c. per doz.; $3.25 per 100; $30 per 1000.

Narcissus for Naturalizing

There is nothing more attractive than a wild or natural garden, and no flower we know of is better adapted for this purpose than the Daffodil and Narcissus in its various forms. Anywhere and everywhere these Daffodils and Narcissus grow and flower luxuriantly, not for one season, but from year to year in greater quantities each spring. We offer here, separately, various types of Narcissus for naturalizing so they can be selected to suit each individual purpose.

MEDIUM TRUMPETS. (For naturalizing.) The following two varieties are offered separately as they have proved to be the most outstanding and satisfactory sorts for naturalizing. Where one type of one color is desired, we recommend either one of these. They will be there each spring and year after year increase irresistibly.

Ideal. (For naturalizing.) Medium trumpet of pure yellow; perianth primrose-yellow, turning lighter when flower is in full bloom. Extremely free flowering and hardy. Very robust flowers of lasting quality and ideal for cutting. $3 per 100; $27.50 per 1000.

Sir Watkin. (For naturalizing.) Primrose-yellow perianth; well-formed medium trumpet, tinged deep yellow. Large and free flowering. $3 per 100; $27.50 per 1000.

GIANT TRUMPETS. (For naturalizing.) Mixture of golden trumpet varieties. Is there a sight more welcome than the golden yellow, nodding Trumpet Daffodils under trees or shrubbery planting, brightening the April landscape? $3.10 per 100; $29 per 1000.

SHORT-CUPPED. (For naturalizing.) A mixture of Narcissus in their various forms, white and yellow perianths, with cups of brightly contrasting colors, that are excellent for wild planting, and, besides, give a wealth of cut-flowers. $2.90 per 100; $27 per 1000.

TRUMPET AND SHORT-CUPPED. (For naturalizing.) An excellent blending of varieties for mass planting. Golden yellow and pure white, early- and late-flowering varieties, they will give an abundant and prolonged flowering period. Plant them where they can be left alone to increase from year to year. They never fail to give the garden a cheerful appearance each spring. $2.90 per 100; $27 per 1000.

Exhibition Hyacinths

The Hyacinth bulbs we offer below are of mammoth size, carefully selected, of the highest quality, and particularly desirable for forcing. For garden planting in beds, borders, and groups, we recommend them where the largest flower-spikes are wanted. Of the many hundreds of varieties of Hyacinths grown, we have selected and offer only the best sorts.

Van Tubergen's Scarlet.	Exceptional color—beautiful scarlet. Suitable for early forcing	3 00	22 25

French Roman Hyacinths

These are among the earliest bulbs to be had in flower. If potted up in September and at intervals of every two weeks, they may be had in bloom from November all through the winter months. Each bulb, although smaller than the other Hyacinths, will produce a number of long, slender, loosely formed, pure white flower-spikes, which are delightfully fragrant. $1.25 per doz.; $8.75 per 100.

Miniature Hyacinths

Miniature Hyacinths are frequently used for forcing, and we can recommend them for this purpose. In view of the small size of the bulbs it is advisable to put a fairly large number in each bulb-pan.

Miscellaneous Bulbs

Dutch Iris

A magnificent strain of Bulbous Iris which has, in a few years, won international recognition. The flowers are of great substance, brilliant and pure of color. Their hardiness and interesting color-range have made them very popular for garden planting. They are the most luxurious flowers massed in beds and groups in the garden. As cut-flowers, Dutch Iris are unsurpassed, lasting fully a week in water.

Winter Aconite · Eranthis hyemalis

Yellow flowers, like buttercups, arise above a dark green rosette of foliage, about 3 inches above the ground, a few weeks before the crocus. Especially recommended for small groups, rockeries, and for naturalizing in moist, shady situations. $1.80 per 100; $17 per 1000.

Leucojum vernum · Spring Snowflake

Similar to the snowdrop but larger and stronger. The white, bell-shaped, pendent flowers are tipped with green. They begin blooming in late April. Excellent for naturalizing—once planted they take care of themselves. Also do well in pots. 65c. per doz.; $4.50 per 100.

Sparaxis

Mixed Colors. Charming little flowers of the brightest colors and shades—orange, yellow, pink, red, purple. Thin, strong, graceful stems 6 to 8 inches high. Excellent for indoor winter flowering. 60c. per doz.; $4.25 per 100.

Scilla

Sibirica. Drooping, bell-like flowers of the brightest blue color on stems 3 to 4 inches tall. Ideal for naturalizing, not being particular as to the soil in which they grow. Also fine for borders and in the rock-garden.	100	1000
Blooms in early April	$1 75	$16 00
Sibirica Alba. Like the above, but white	2 75	26 00

Scilla campanulata

Erect flower-spikes, 15 inches high, and open, campanulate flowers. Valuable for wild gardens and woodlands, where they should be largely naturalized. Bloom in May. Very effective when interplanted with groups of the May-flowering tulips.

Fritillaria meleagris · Guinea-Hen Flower

Dwarf, spring-flowering plants, bearing pendent, bell-shaped, yellowish white flowers, striped and splashed purple and brown, and curiously checkered. Very effective when grown among a ground-cover and invaluable for the rock-garden; also suitable for cutting. $2.25 per 100; $21 per 1000.

Fritillaria imperialis · Crown Imperials

Well-known, majestic, hardy border plants that bear clusters of immense, pendent, bell-shaped flowers at the top of the stem. If placed in a sunny spot, they may be left there for years in succession. Bloom in April.
